FROM THE HEAD FOX

By the time this goes to print, July will have come and gone. The Chapter was busy and it looks like August is going to be the same. August 9th is our quarterly ride planning meeting, It's at Fun Bike Center at 11:30 am. Pizza and drinks will be available, so bring your ideas and appetites and join in the planning of our events for the rest of the year. We are having a co-riders seminar at Maury University, Del Mar Race Track, and Movie Night just to name a few. Keep checking our website and the calendar for all the fun events coming up.

The District Rally is coming up Labor Day weekend and some of us will be making the trip to Bakersfield. If you've never attended District Rally, think about joining us. You'll meet a lot of nice people and make new friends. I want to take this opportunity to thank Bonita for making the centerpieces for the Chapter tables again this year. She always does an excellent job and has taken first place several times in the past.

Our new Fun Run coordinators are Bud & Mary. They are busy getting things finalized for the Fun Run coming up in October. They will be asking for your help, so please step up and help out. This is how YOUR Chapter raises money to operate for the coming year.

We need to find a new Newsletter Editor, Robert has agreed to take over for three months, so think about it and if you want to try your hand at it, give us a call.

I want to welcome all the new members to CA1 F, and hope they will join us on the many events we have coming up. If you have any questions, please call or e-mail me.

Ride safe and keep the dirty side down.

Golden State Gem California District Director Anita and JR Alkire

Let's see, talk about Wing Ding or District Rally? I know that you really want to hear about both so here you go.

The Roaring 20's District Rally is growing and shaping up really well. We have beautiful trophies for the events and we have posted to the website the categories for the trophies for skills games and bike show. Ralph Richardson had us include a new category for skills games, so check it out. If you have a bike that is not covered by the trophies, let us know and we can include your category.

We have an awesome T-shirt design again for this year; check it out on the District website. The t-shirts will only be available by preorder so order yours now!

We have also posted to the website the tentative schedule for the rally. We are putting a call out to all the seminar presenters to attend a class just for you on Saturday to expand and update your training. Please plan on being there. Treasurers will have a forum with our District Treasurer with the new categories for expenses and the requirements to send in those annual financials. On Sunday morning we'll be having the CD/ACD forum and the CE/ACE forum with the District representatives. It's your time to ask questions of us and for us to update you on new news.

This year we are also offering the ARC and TRC classes. There is a separate registration form for those classes as well as the First Aid/CPR classes. That form is located on the District website. We will also be offering Rider Educations seminars and Leadership Training seminars. Look at the website for descriptions of the classes. Following the skills games on Sunday will be the bike games. The bike games are done 1 up and 2 up and with a trailer. They are fun skill games and are open to all to participate.

We are hoping that many of you will show up in costume. The Roarin' 20's was a fun time for clothes! We really want to see you properly dressed at the Speakeasy on Saturday night. Don't forget about the chapter films about the Roaring 20's they are due to us by August 20th, 2009. So get those creative juices going and let's have as much fun with this as we had last year with the talent show. We will be showing the films at the Speakeasy on Saturday night for all to see. Don't forget those table decorations. There is no requirement this year except that they should follow the Roarin' 20's theme.

There will be judging so have fun!

The vendors are excited about coming back and we will get the links to their websites up so you can view their products and plan your budgets. As last year we'll have all the vendors inside with a couple of exceptions. Wing Stuff will be our major vendor and we appreciate their support.

Prizes will be the door prizes and then vendor sponsored prizes including a set of tires from JBJ and then you can purchase tickets for the $1000.00 cash grand prize.

Don't forget to get your room reservations made at the Double Tree and remember for each room night you book you'll get a bonus of $10 of daily 50/25/25 tickets, just our way of saying thank you for staying at the host hotel. Hopefully you all have heard that we negotiated the rate down to $87/night to make it more affordable.

So we'll see you soon and we can't wait, the rally will be one of a kind!

Our trip to Wing Ding started, no surprise here, with a hot first day. California can't travel east without a hot day through the desert and ours was 109! JR and I, Ralph and Crystal melted into Prescott for the night and did have a great dinner at the Firehouse Restaurant! Next day we took in the Grand Canyon and it was probably the clearest we have ever seen. We stayed so long we missed 4 Corners as we made our way to Cortez, CO. We took the next day to see Mesa Verde National Park and it was incredible as usual. Our National Parks never get old! We split ways as we left Cortez, we went to Garden City, KS and Ralph and Crystal went to Sterling, OK. Even though

SEVEN TIMES..... AND COUNTING

by Lou Caspary

Got the I-10 humdrums?
Are you bored, tired and weary of that super-slab?

Do you experience lassitude, lethargy and exhaustion on your rides?

Does the continuous white line miasma make you fatigued, drowsy, and languorous?

Afraid the tediousness / monotony and satiety might put you to sleep?

Just plain-old "had-it" with the uninteresting, devoid of interest and monotonous, dull, arid, tedious, trying, humdrum, flat, somniferous scenery?

Try this:

Wave to a train operator.

Out in the middle of NOWHERE.

They feel much the same way, with not much to do all day, and are more than happy (usually) to BLAST THE HORN for you. It's a really empowering feeling, out in the vast, huge, immense, infinite, boundless, immeasurable, enormoussness of the American Southwest.

Whether they are coming at you or are going the same direction, get their attention. The last one did not blast until we both had our arms up waving at him.

Makes me laugh inside the helmet every time it happens.

Kyoko says I am like a little child.

Perhaps she is right.

I like that feeling.

I Travel to You

we were on different paths we still got hit with the same storm. The wind was blowing so hard that as JR went to put his FrogTogg jacket on it caught in the antenna and ripped in half. So as we got pelted with rain blowing from all directions, sometimes so hard JR couldn't see over through the windshield, we carefully made our way through and arrived very wet and tired at the hotel. Our next day took us through Dodge City, KS and down to Tulsa, OK arriving just in time to grab our packets and head out to the opening night party.

We lucked out at Wing Ding as Larry and Donna Pickens flew in and rented an Explorer, large enough for all of us and we soooo appreciated that! The opening night party included seeing the play "Oklahoma", a Rogers and Hammerstedt musical. I had done this musical when I was a junior in High School but we didn't have real horses or have real horses drawing that "surrey with the fringe on top" (I was in the orchestra pit). It's a great play but a very long first act! Wing Ding's attendance was a little over 9000 and there was a good variety of vendors. The venue was great as everything was right there. The entertainment was great and California's own Lou Caspary from CA1F did a great job at the talent show. On a cool personal note, I was awarded with my Masters Instructors patch from Leadership Training.

We left Tulsa with Nick Hoppner's group from Colorado heading for Dodge City. What an interesting place. We had a great dinner at Central Station (we highly recommend this restaurant, they even came and picked us up and took us back to the hotel!) with great new and old friends. We stayed the next day in Dodge to see the sights and then it was time to get out of Dodge! Our route home took us to 4 Corners, Wupatki National Monument, a gorgeous ride through Oak Creek Canyon into Sedona and then a very hot day to arrive home. Our puppy Denali was very happy to see us but I could tell he had had a great time with his puppy sitter and we are blessed to have him to watch Denali! As usual JR planned a great route for us and we had a fantastic trip. We are so blessed to live in this country and ride such unbelievable motorcycles that have opened our lives up to so many fantastic friends!

So that's it for now.....well almost. We have a new addition to the Alkire family and we are both so excited. Now don't let JR kid you, it does not belong to him, IT'S MY TRIKE!!! Yes, we are the proud owners of a new 2001 Illusion Red California SideCar Trike, thank you JBJ! JR has been giving me refresher training and I will be taking my TRC class with Hank Herrera very soon. So I'm not out terrorizing the roads yet, but just you wait, I'll be riding to see you soon. So be good, be safe and we'll see you soon!

WHEN ARE YOU MOST "AT RISK" TO CRASH

This article comes from the GWRRR REP Website.

Written by Jim Culp

Dawn or dusk conditions? Those are potentially dangerous times but not what I'm thinking.

Riding in heavy traffic? Another potentially dangerous time but, again, not what I'm looking for.

Riding in the mountains with all the curves and stuff? Possibly a dangerous time but no.

The majority of motorcycle crashes (90% according to the Hurt Report conducted in the 1970's) occur within the first hour of riding. More interesting though is that 50% of the crashes happen within the first 6 minutes! That's why most crashes happen within 5 miles of home.

The factors involved here are ATTENTION and CONCENTRATION. We don't readily transition ourselves from one activity (like being at home or work) to another (riding the motorcycle). How focused can we be on the inherent hazards of riding when we are still waking up or thinking about the problems at work?

That's why becoming an ATGATT (All The Gear All The Time) rider can be so valuable. In my case, I have to go get the motorcycle key from the key box, take my riding suit off its hanger and put it on, put on my gloves, put on my helmet, take my gloves back off so I can fasten my helmet, put my gloves back on, walk out to the bike, take my gloves back off so I can unzip my riding suit to get to the key that's in my jeans pocket, etc. etc. Yes, I'm a goofball who can't remember to keep my keys out (I doubt that I'm alone here). The point is that all these small steps take some time. During that time that I'm unconsciously getting myself READY TO RIDE.

Being READY TO RIDE and having my head "in the game" helps me to ride more safely. Are you taking steps to make yourself READY TO RIDE?
